

MAN DROPS DEAD AFTER AUTO RIDE WITH HIS FIANCEE

Real Estate Broker Helps
Woman Into House, Then Falls Unconscious.

The investigation was begun to-day into the death of Frank J. Jellet, a real estate broker, who dropped dead in the parlor of No. 57 East Twenty-first street last night after returning from an automobile ride with Miss Belle Mitchell, to whom he was reported engaged.

Jellet, who comes from Albany, had been in this city four weeks, living at No. 431 Seventh avenue. He appeared to have ample resources, using an automobile constantly and spending money freely. He was connected with two real estate firms, the Hudson P. Rose Realty Company on the Hudson and the Duncan Lodge Realty Company of Dunoon, L. I.

He went to Dunoon yesterday to show some real estate, returning with Miss Mitchell about 11 o'clock last night. He assisted her from the machine, but as they were going up the steps of Miss Mitchell's boarding place on Twenty-first street he complained of being ill. He fell unconscious and died after being carried into the parlor. Dr. Arnold of the Continental Hotel, Broadway and Twenty-first street, was summoned. He said death was due to heart disease.

Miss Mitchell refused either to affirm or deny the report that she was engaged to Jellet. She was wearing no engagement ring.

According to the janitor at the Seventh avenue house, where Jellet lived, he was understood to be engaged to Miss Margaret Ryan, a high school teacher of Glen Cove, L. I., who also comes from Albany.

$8,243 FROM STANDARD OIL.

Jury Gives Verdict to Independent Dealer Who Was Ruined.

A jury before Justice Brown in the Supreme Court to-day returned a verdict for $8,243 against the Standard Oil Company, in favor of John J. Moran, who alleged that the trust killed his trade as an independent oil dealer and caused his financial ruin.

Moran, formerly an oil dealer at Nos. 71 and 73 East Fifty-second street, was persuaded by Standard Oil to give up his business and enter the trust's employ. Three months later, he declared, he was discharged, but not until the oil company had secured a list of all his old customers.

Moran sued for $25,000 damages, and $5,000 additional which he claimed to be due him in commissions. The trust brought a counter claim, claiming Moran owed it $12,000 for goods sold to him when he was an independent dealer. According to Moran, the Standard Oil Company furnished him with such inferior goods that he lost many of his customers.

ATTACKS SUBWAY ROUTE.

Property Owner Also Takes a Fling at Mayor Gaynor.

A motion was made by Joseph J. White before the Appellate Division in Brooklyn yesterday to revoke all orders of the courts which have extended the time in which a subway route might be laid out through Pineapple, Cranberry or Montague streets, Brooklyn. The Court took the papers and gave Mr. White and George S. Coleman, counsel for the Public Service Commission, his opponent, time to submit briefs. Mr. White owns property abutting on Pineapple street.

It was Mr. White's contention that irreparable damage would be inflicted on property owners by the construction of the attempted construction over the proposed route, which he condemns as physically impossible. He read court records in which he attacked Mayor Gaynor by implication.
